Dear Parishioners,

Concern for the undocumented

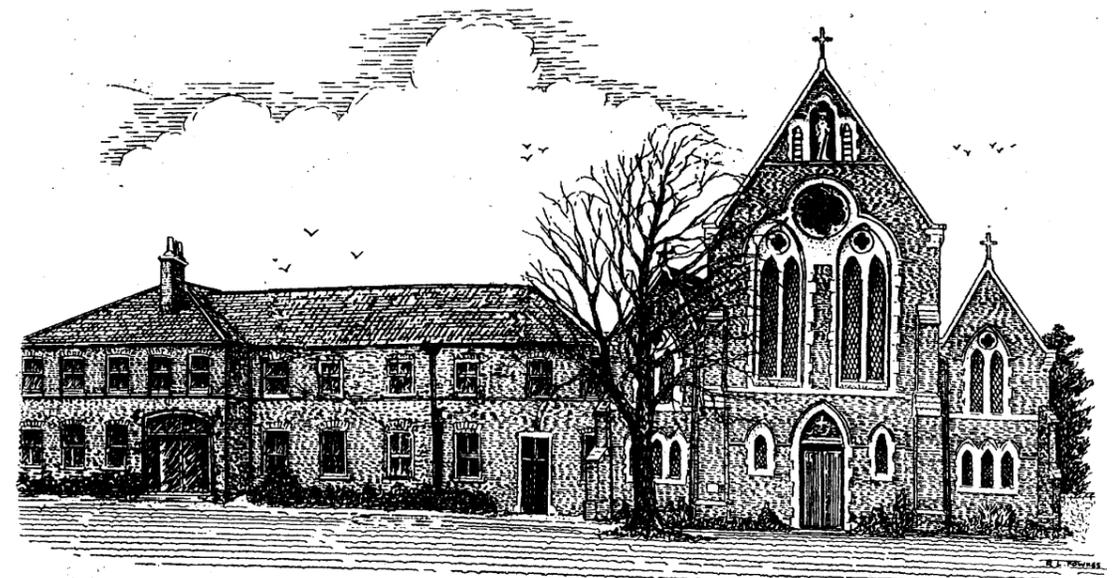

Under the auspices of Telco we featured in an hour-long meeting with Ian Duncan Smith our MP. Six of us urged him to galvanise government action to rectify the gross injustice being experienced by the undocumented among us. A huge number of them are legally here, but sometimes not allowed to work, deprived of NHS and benefits, and subject to abuse. Sir Ian was helpful. Our work with Telco is important and we must keep it up.

The summer break

Schools have finished. Many parish activities go into hibernation (it should be aestivation) for the month as we all take a deserved rest. Usually it is a time of delight and relief. This year it is muted because of the restraints still needed, the threats that seem even closer. Still I hope you will all have a rest and come back in September with energies renewed. I thank you for all your generosity, your service, your caring and your prayer.

May God bless you and keep everyone safe and well.
