The Baptism of the Lord Cycle A 12 January 2020

Please note the nearest Fire Exit to you whilst you are in the Church

When Jesus was baptised in the River Jordan the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him like a dove. It marked the moment he began his ministry of doing good and healing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.

First Reading Isaiah 42:1-4. 6-7

Isaiah offers a beautiful description of the Messiah, who comes to serve the cause of right and bring healing to humanity.

Second Reading Acts 10:34-38

St Peter tells a Roman soldier, whom he baptised, how Jesus had gone about doing good and healing.

Gospel Matthew 3:13-17

Jesus, at his baptism, receives the Holy Spirit and is proclaimed to be God's beloved Son.

Responsorial Psalm

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Welcome back....

and I wish you all a happy new year. Thank you for all your greetings and hugely generous gifts in kind and the Christmas collection.

The Tree and Christmas decorations have been put away for a year, but the crib remains: Mary and Joseph and the child stay to remind us of the absolute centrality of family life and of the slow and gradual process of growth through prayer.

Parish life has sprung into action and we have a very full year ahead.

Catholic newspapers

It is a good thing to read the Catholic press: otherwise how can anyone know what is happening in the church? But the publishers now refuse to provide them on a sale-or-return basis. So we have to order and pay for each copy they send us. If you wish to have a subscription please contact the parish office and they will happily and promptly make the arrangement.

Volunteers' social

We have deliberated long: How can we show our appreciation of you who give your time and energies to the tasks of the parish. So there will be a simple social event in Becket on Jan 25th starting at 7pm. If you are fairly regularly doing any of the services or functions of the parish please come and celebrate with us. Do not be shy. But please do just tell us you are coming so that we will know the numbers. We do want Becket to be full to the scuppers.

Parish Activities

Monday 13th January
Keep Fit in the Becket Centre at 8pm

Fr Quentin will be available to sign Certificates of Practice between 7 & 8pm

Tuesday 14th January at 2pm
Tuesday Club We'll be collecting full monies for our Christmas Lunch: 3 Courses - £17.50; 2 Courses - £14.50. Drinks, coffee and tea to be bought, individually, on the day. Look forward to seeing as many as possible.

Wednesday 15th January
Journey of Faith in Assisi Room 7.30pm

Saturday 18th January
Saturday School 10am upstairs in the Becket Centre for children who do not attend Catholic Schools.

Readers

This year is dedicated to the Word of God. We are blessed with many who read the passages chosen for each day and week in church. "Know your dignity" said St Augustine. You are God's mouthpiece. Because it is so important we need to ensure the Word is well proclaimed at every opportunity. So there will be a training day on Saturday 25th January. Please come. Sue gave us a wonderfully enjoyable and profitable day last year and will do so again on the 25th

Invitations have been issued via email to all Readers, if you haven't received an invite and you would like to attend, please email, as soon as possible to: stoc.readers@gmail.com or phone the Parish Office (020 8504 1686)

Volunteers social event

25th January 2020 7 to 9pm

The Parish Council has organised a social event to thank those who play a role in our church community. This extends not just to those who assist with the Mass, but with cleaning the church, photocopying the newsletters, flower arrangers and to be honest lots more unsung heroes of our community. We would like to say thank you. If you would like to come please either sign up on the sheet at the back of the church or contact the parish office. Do come along .

Service for Christian Unity, 2020

The service will be held at St. Barnabas Church, Snakes Lane East on Sunday, January 19th at 6.30pm, followed by light refreshments. All welcome.

Awake London

A Bible convention and Healing ministry on Saturday 18th January from 2-6 pm at St Anne's Catholic High School, 6 Oakthorpe Road, N13 5TY.

Mass Online

Saturday vigil mass will be recorded and available to view online. To view mass online visit our parish website www.stthomaswoodford.org Click Mass Online, then click the link to Online
