

The media have made much this week of fears that Muslims are failing to integrate into British life. If there is fault, then it is as much a duty on us to approach them as it is for them to come out to us. Anyone with this preoccupation would have found reassurance in a training afternoon conducted in the Becket Centre on a recent Sunday. Four or five Muslim women joined nine of our parish in a TELCO training session. The women were not at all reticent: sociable, practical, caring, well-informed and active in pressing the authorities to provide affordable housing. Once again TELCO insures that our parish is in contact with the real world and its issues.

24 HOURS ADORATION

The first Mass was celebrated in this church on 20th May 1896. So the 120th anniversary falls next month. It is an appropriate day for us to engage in adoration through 24 hours. So we will start with evening prayer on Friday, 19th May at 6pm. Adoration will continue through the night. Already arranged is a 9am Mass for God's Little Helpers, with Bishop Alan in attendance. For the rest there will be quiet, with frequent but brief assistance to simulate prayer. The day will end with the 6pm Mass on Saturday 20th. I hope the whole parish will engage in this act of prayer. I invite all the component groups that make up our family to give thought to how they will have an input. More anon.

PARISH ANNUAL MEETING

It has been held in October in recent years. I suggest it would be better to hold it before the summer holidays, and I am grateful to the Parish Council that they have agreed to this. Parish life follows the school annual routine. It starts up afresh in early September and runs down in exhaustion as the end of July approaches.

Just come along on a Thursday at 2pm for about an hour to see whether you may like to get involved. It is very therapeutic. You may like to work in teams of two to start with. ## 4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER CYCLE C

17TH APRIL 2016

Today is the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Let us listen to the voice of Jesus, the good shepherd, and hear how and where he is calling each one of us.

First Reading (Acts 13:14. 43-52)

The preaching of Paul and Barnabas is well received by the Jewish community in Antioch, but their leaders are so opposed to it that Paul directs his mission instead to the pagans.

Second Reading (Apocalypse 7:9. 14-17)

In his vision of heaven, John sees a huge crowd standing before the throne of God. These will have the Lamb as their shepherd who will lead them to living water.

(Gospel) (John 10:27-30)

The sheep entrusted to Jesus by the Father listen to his voice and are kept safe for eternal life.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

We are his people, the sheep of his flock.
