

Thank You

Thursday evening last was a truly memorable experience. So many of you braved the cold to come and be with us – never has the Becket Centre seemed so full. Every aspect of the parish was here – the young, the not-so-young and the superannuated all coming from every part of the parish and beyond.

The evening began with Jeremy – Parish Council Chair – announcing a surprise presentation from the children and staff of St Antony's – with cards made by the children and with wonderful ingenuity personalised for the three of us. Dr Doherty spoke very kindly on behalf of Trinity School and indeed on behalf of the parish.

All three of us had our thank-yous to make; first and above all for the sense of really belonging we have all enjoyed through your friendship, joys and indeed sorrows too. We were reminded by the young – and others – you baptised me, your married us, you shared our grief in our bereavement. We too have our gratitude here through you inviting us to be with you on all these occasions.

As Michael pointed out – there is something here that is not normally elsewhere – a sensitivity which means not waiting to be asked to help but proactively anticipating needs and volunteering. Michael, your new parish priest, is inheriting this reassuring gift – with a wonderful Parish Office Staff, and volunteers for every aspect of parish life – too numerous to mention; though I can give examples from the teams for the Garden Fete and Christmas Bazaar – and for outreach beyond parish boundaries with the Soup-run teams and Telco...

We leave with that affectionate feeling of being missed – to be missed is to be loved, and that was abundantly present – many, many thanks.

Words that came to mind as saying something about this wonderful experience, are those of Yeats [Cloths of Heaven] ... Had I the heavens' embroidered cloths // Enwrought with gold and silver light // the blue and the dim and the dark cloths // of night and light and half-light // I would spread the cloths under your feet - but I being poor, have only my dreams // I have spread my dreams under your feet // tread softly, for you walk upon my dreams.

Brian, Michael and Austin

YOUCAT

The language of the Catechism of the Catholic Church is very theological. Youcat fills a gap for everyone. It is attractively presented with illustrations, interesting marginal quotes, accessible language, and is cross-referenced to the standard "big" Catechism. If you find the standard Catechism a bit too much, buy Youcat without hesitation and learn more about the Catholic faith. £9.95 in the Repository. There is also a youth Prayer book £7.95.

STEWARDS REQUIRED

We have a desperate need for more volunteer stewards at the 6pm Mass—children most welcome to help.

If anyone has mistakenly taken the silver clicker which is used during communion for counting numbers of parishioners please be so kind as to return it to the parish office. Grateful thanks.

DRAGON THEATRE COMPANY

Proudly present the nation's favourite pantomime Cinderella. With live music, rip roaring fun and a surprising twist to Buttons, a show not to be missed. Tickets available from the box office on 07960 676180 £7 and £5 concessions. Performances on 23rd, 24th and 30th, 31st January at 7.30pm and Saturday matinee at 2.30pm St. George's Hall, Gants Hill.

SECOND SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME B

18th January 2015

What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus? First of all it means a willingness to listen to him, to accept that he is calling us to be with him and to act on his behalf. Secondly it means responding to that call, going out of our way to see what he wants of us.

First Reading (1 Samuel 3:3-10. 19)

The Lord calls Samuel to be his faithful servant.

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 6:13-15. 17-20)

Our bodies are members making up the body of Christ.

Gospel (John 1:35-42)

Jesus calls his first disciples

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Here I am Lord!
I come to do your will.
