

FAMILY FAST DAY

I hope you managed to do a little self-denial this week and with profit to the needy in today's retiring collection. Why CAFOD? Big fund-raisers are under scrutiny, and criticised that they spend too much on themselves and admin. The value of CAFOD lies in their having people and contacts on the ground where money is being spent. So we can have confidence that our money is reaching the right people. Still we can nudge them about the need to keep admin costs to the minimum: tell them not to send out so many begging letters for one.

Please put your Family Fast Envelope in the basket at the back of church.

BISHOP ALAN'S LETTER

I hope you have had time to read the leaflet you were given last Sunday. It requires us to respond. I shall be glad to receive your comments.

PROPER CONDITIONS FOR CARERS

St. Antony's children made a big impact in Ilford last week. They told Redbridge Council the standard of care they wish their grandparents to receive. Others of our Telco Group also made telling presentations so that the Council is being pushed hard to promote proper contracts, pay and terms for all care-workers. The Council listened and set up further meetings to act on it. Well done and thank you. You are doing precisely the work on which Pope Francis is so insistent by his words and example.

LENT LUNCHES

In the Becket Centre on Tuesdays in Lent. 12.15pm—1.30pm in aid of Mary's Meals (an organisation which provides meals for school children in crisis-stricken countries). Home Made Soup and French Bread £3. Everyone is welcome.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Each Friday we engage in this devotion. After the 10am Mass it is led by a volunteer of the parish community. The friars will generally lead the evening devotion at 8pm.

CERTIFICATE OF CATHOLIC PRACTICE

JOURNEY OF FAITH

Three of our journey companions, plus one 5 week old catechumen, were welcomed into the family of the Diocese last Sunday afternoon by the Bishop. We will be there for their baptism and reception on Easter Saturday and I hope many will come for the vigil service. Just three, plus two infants are taking the big step this year. But through the weeks a large number of born Catholics have joined in the discussions each Monday. They are each aware they need to learn more of our faith and eager to do so. It brings a depth and quality to life that is much needed. The journey goes on, and anyone can join in at any time.

TUESDAY CLUB

23rd February in the Becket Centre at 2pm. Chair Yoga. All welcome.

MERCY

On Tuesday we will meet in the Becket Centre at 8pm to deepen the theme Fr. Austin started last Tuesday. Some questions to start thoughts rolling: Does this talk of mercy do anything to help my needs? Can it do anything to meet the disillusion with the church in those who have given up? Do I really need to be persuaded of God's mercy for me, or is it about something slightly different? Come and tell us what you really think.

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT CYCLE C

21st FEBRUARY 2016

The mysteries of life surround us. If we live by faith, love, the greatest of all mysteries, is the bright cloud that keeps us safe, for without faith, life is a darkness.

First Reading

(Genesis 15:5-12. 17-18)

Human beings make covenants out of mistrust.
God makes a covenant out of love.

Second Reading

(Philippians 3:17-4:1)

We are measured by the standards of heaven, our true home, not the standards of the earth.

Gospel

(Luke 9:28-36)

We are perfected not just by our own love but by the love of others. Christ is perfect because he is the perfectly beloved.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

The Lord is my light and my help
