26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Cycle B

30th September 2018

Being called disciples means that we recognise we are called by the Lord. It also means that we should recognise the gifts of others, especially if they are not "one of us".

First Reading Numbers 11:25-29

Joshua's misplaced zeal manifests itself in jealousy of others who prophesy without permission. Moses says he wishes all God's people could prophesy.

Second Reading James 5:1-6

"An answer for the rich," says James in this letter. Those he seems to have in mind are those who are focused on themselves and what they have earned.

Gospel Mark 9:38-43. 45. 47-48

There is no room for jealousy in discipleship. Those who follow Jesus are called to recognise the giftedness of others.

Responsorial Psalm

The precepts of the Lord gladden the heart

"Francis: Repair my house for as you see it is falling into ruin."

The words spoken to St Francis from the crucifix in San Damiano provide us with a programme for this autumn. We celebrate St Francis' feast beginning with the service of Transitus – or Death – of St Francis this Tuesday evening at 8 pm. Francis was accustomed to express his deep insights spontaneously in mime and action. So on Tuesday evening we rehearse many of these small dramatic gestures of his final hours. Please join us.

Preparation of children for Holy Communion

The course begins this weekend. We are saddened by the illness that has stricken Jackie Reilly who has led the programme for many years. Please pray for her. Because the number is so great we are still struggling to find the best way to arrange the masses next May. For the moment the stress is on you parents. It is your task to prepare your child. Our organisation, our catechists are there to help you do your task. You have to show by your practice that you are thoroughly committed to this life-long intimate companionship with Jesus that is Holy Communion. If your child does not see in you a serious commitment, then First Communion will go nowhere: could it even be damaging?

Mass and Sacrament for the sick

This Sunday there will be Mass in St Thomas at 3 pm. We hope that many normally housebound and all who suffer serious illness will come for this brief Mass and anointing. I thank the SVP and many others who will be bringing these who contribute so much to our parish by patient suffering and prayer. Tea after in Becket.

Little Sisters of the Poor

Send their grateful thanks for the generous donation of £3061 which will go towards the emergency lighting at St Anne's Home.

Saturday School

At 10 am each Saturday morning there is a course for children who do not attend a Catholic school. The teachers are generous and skilled. You can see their display tucked modestly into the back corner of the church. So please: if you have a child who can benefit from this instruction in faith, do come and join this class.

The Movie Night

Another spectacular success! Great fun and great enthusiasm. You worked hard setting it up and next morning evidence you cleared up so well. Nothing left but some popcorn for the birds. It was a great parish event and great for the Telco groups funds for Syrian refugee families. Thank you for both.

CAFOD Family Fast Day: Friday 5 October

On Family Fast Day, CAFOD invites us to share in the abundance that God has given us. We are asked to fast, pray and give to help people like Longora, who lives in a remote village in Uganda. The area is so hot and dry, people used to struggle to get enough clean water to survive. Thanks to the generosity of parishioners in England and Wales, CAFOD has made sure Longora and her neighbours now have a reliable supply of clean, safe water.

On Family Fast Day, CAFOD invites us to eat simply – perhaps having a bowl of soup instead of a meal – and give the money we save to help people like Longora. Please collect your Fast Day envelope from the church this week and give what you can.

Baptisms

Congratulations to the following children who were baptised in September at St Thomas's—
Stephanie Flaherty, Lucas Dent, Charlie Parkinson, Oscar Dewey, Lewis Sikking, Erin Sikking, Lily Sikking, Nadia Awuan

Aggrey & Neriah Awuah Aggrey.

Golden Wedding

Veronica and Walter Poulter will celebrate their Golden Wedding at 10am mass on Saturday, 6th of October. Congratulations!

Trinity Open evening

An Open Evening for prospective entrants to Trinity Catholic High School (Science & Sports College) will be held on Wednesday 3rd October 2018.
