

FEAST OF ST. FRANCIS 4TH OCTOBER

His feast this year falls on a Sunday. Our whole knowledge of faith and church as well as our practical living of the gospel is coloured by his vision. So the masses on Sunday week will be of the saint, with special readings. Readers please note. You have been accustomed to the Transitus on the eve of his feast, splendidly performed by Trinity. They will not do this this year. Instead we friars will perform a simple enactment of the final hours of Francis' life. We will do it at 5.30pm in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel. But do come.

MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

I ask all ministers of Holy Communion to come to church this Wednesday at 7.30pm. We will begin the meeting with a short period of adoration, leading to a reflection on the ministry God is giving us. Then we will move on to discuss some practical issues. We should look to make sure that we are taking the Lord to anyone in the parish who is sick or unable to come to Mass. To this end it will be well if all who do take communion to homes will bring a list that we can co-ordinate. Please also bring any concerns you have regarding our ministry.

GETTING MARRIED 2016?

If you are planning on getting married in St. Thomas' in 2016 and have not already contacted the parish office. Please do so a.s.a.p.
